However, as military organizations matured and formalized their administrative procedures, the necessity for tangible proof of promotion emerged.

Early Practices:

- In ancient armies, promotions were often communicated via spoken commands or ceremonial tokens.
- No standardized certificates existed; recognition was primarily symbolic and ceremonial.

Modern Developments:

- The 19th and 20th centuries saw the institutionalization of official documents, including promotion certificates, to serve as legal proof of rank changes.
- These certificates became part of personnel records, serving administrative, legal, and career management functions.
