The story is set in Cuba, a locale Hemingway knew intimately, and reflects his fascination with the sea and fishing—recurring motifs in his work. The novel was initially published as a standalone story in Esquire magazine in 1952 before being expanded into a novella form. Its publication was met with immediate acclaim, and it played a significant role in Hemingway's receiving the Nobel Prize in Literature. Critics and readers alike have viewed the novella as a distilled expression of Hemingway's philosophy and narrative mastery.
