Born in 1968, she was just 17 years old at the time of her encounter with one of America's most notorious serial killers. Her life, like many teenagers, was marked by struggles—family issues, economic hardships, and a turbulent social environment. These circumstances, unfortunately, played a role in her vulnerability to exploitation and danger. In 1983, Cindy's life took a drastic turn when she encountered a man named Robert Hansen, an outdoorsman and convicted murderer whose crimes would later shock the nation.
