3. Administrative or Processing Fees

- Some locations may charge a small administrative fee for processing cancellations, typically around $10–$20.

4. Transfer or Freeze Fees

- If you opt to freeze your membership instead of canceling, there might be a fee (often $10–$15 per month). - Transferring your membership to another individual can sometimes cost around $25–$50.

Step 5: Confirm Cancellation and Final Billing

- Obtain written confirmation of your cancellation. - Confirm any final payments or fees due.

Potential Costs and How to Minimize Them

While the typical costs are outlined above, members can take steps to minimize or avoid charges: - Cancel During the Initial Trial Period: Many memberships offer a free or low-cost trial; cancel before the trial ends to avoid charges. - Cancel During the Contract's Grace Period: Some contracts have a 30-day notice period; cancel during this window to avoid further billing. - Request a Medical or Relocation Exception: If you move or have health issues, provide documentation to waive cancellation fees. - Negotiate with the Gym: Sometimes, speaking directly with staff can result in waived fees or better terms.
