Potential Limitations and Considerations

Repetitive Technical Exercises

Certain exercises, especially in early pages, may become repetitive, potentially causing boredom in some students. Teachers may need to supplement with additional etudes or exercises to maintain engagement.

Limited Focus on Contemporary Repertoire

The repertoire leans heavily toward classical and folk tunes. Students interested in jazz, pop, or contemporary styles might find the selection somewhat narrow, necessitating additional materials.

Accessibility for Diverse Learners

Students with particular learning styles or physical challenges may require tailored approaches, as the book does not explicitly address differentiated instruction.
