Understanding Tolentino Obligations and Contracts

What Are Obligations and Contracts?

Obligations and contracts are closely related legal concepts that underpin many transactions in everyday life. - Obligation: A legal duty to do or not do something. It arises from law, contracts, quasi-contracts, delicts, or acts that produce legal effects. - Contract: A voluntary agreement between two or more parties that creates, modifies, or extinguishes obligations. While all contracts are obligations, not all obligations are contractual in nature. For instance, obligations arising from quasi-contracts or delicts are not contractual but are still legally enforceable.

Legal Foundations of Tolentino Obligations and Contracts

The principles governing obligations and contracts in the Philippines are primarily enshrined in the Civil Code of the Philippines, specifically Articles 1156 to 1304. Professor Hector S. Tolentino's interpretations and commentaries provide valuable insights into these provisions, emphasizing the importance of good faith, mutual consent, and lawful purpose.

Core Principles of Tolentino Obligations and Contracts

1. Pacta Sunt Servanda (Agreements Must Be Kept)

One of the fundamental principles is that agreements must be honored. Under Tolentino's teachings, contracts entered into in good faith are binding and enforceable.

2. Good Faith and Fair Dealing

Both parties must act honestly and fairly throughout the contractual relationship. Good faith is essential in the formation, execution, and interpretation of contracts.

3. Freedom of Contract

Parties are free to create the obligations they desire, provided they do not violate law, morals, public order, or public policy.

4. Validity and Legal Capacity

For a contract to be enforceable, it must be valid, meaning all essential requisites are present, and the parties must have legal capacity to contract.

Essential Elements of a Valid Contract

According to Tolentino, a valid contract generally requires the following elements:

1. Consent of the Parties

- Must be real and free from vices such as mistake, fraud, violence, intimidation, or undue influence. - Consent must be expressed in a manner that reflects the true intention of the parties.

2. Object Certain and Lawful

- The subject matter of the contract must be specific and possible to perform. - The purpose of the contract must not be illegal or against public policy.

3. Consideration Lawful and Not Opposed to Public Policy

- There must be a valuable consideration, which is the price or promise exchanged. - The consideration must be legal and not against morals or public order.

4. Capacity of the Parties

- Parties must have the legal capacity to contract, meaning they are of legal age and sound mind. - Certain persons, such as minors or incapacitated individuals, have limited capacity.

Types of Obligations in Tolentino Law

Obligations are classified based on various criteria:

1. Based on Source

3. Delictual or Tortious Obligations: Arise from wrongful acts causing damage.
4. Law-based Obligations: Imposed by law, such as taxes or penalties.
