3. Follow up on responses to show attentiveness.

1. The Art of Listening

Active listening is more than just hearing words; it involves fully focusing on the speaker, understanding their message, and responding thoughtfully.

3. Summarize key points at the end of a conversation.

1. Non-verbal Cues Speak Louder Than Words

Body language, facial expressions, and tone significantly influence how messages are received.

Why it matters: Non-verbal signals can reinforce or contradict spoken words, impacting credibility and emotional connection.

Practical tips:

1. Pay attention to your own body language; maintain open gestures.
2. Observe others' non-verbal cues for insights into their feelings.
3. Match your tone and facial expressions to your message.
