Understanding the NYU Academic Calendar

Every university operates within an academic calendar that delineates the start and end of academic sessions, breaks, holidays, and exam periods. NYU, known for its urban setting in Manhattan and its diverse academic offerings, follows a structured yet flexible calendar designed to accommodate various programs, including undergraduate, graduate, and professional studies. The Structure of NYU's Academic Year NYU traditionally divides its academic year into two primary sessions: - Fall Semester: Usually begins in late August or early September and ends in December. - Spring Semester: Typically commences in January and concludes in May. Additionally, NYU offers various summer sessions, winter sessions, and intersession periods that extend or modify the typical calendar. Types of Academic Calendars at NYU NYU employs multiple academic calendars depending on the school or college: - Standard Semester Calendar: For most undergraduate and graduate programs, following the traditional fall and spring schedules. - Quarter or Trimester Calendars: Some specialized programs or professional schools may follow different schedules. - Flexible and Modular Scheduling: Certain departments may operate on rolling admissions or modular courses, impacting the overall calendar.
