After the war, the need for specialized military units became evident as conventional armies faced new types of warfare. The roots of the Green Berets can be traced to elite units like the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and various special operations groups during the war. In 1952, the U.S. Army officially established the Special Forces, drawing inspiration from earlier unconventional warfare units. The selection of the distinctive green headgear was symbolic, representing their unique role within the military.
