Historical Background of Cromwell Street

Origins and Development

Cromwell Street, situated in the St. James area of Gloucester, was originally developed during the mid-20th century as a modest residential zone. Built primarily in the 1950s and 1960s, the street comprised semi-detached houses meant to accommodate working-class families. Its architecture reflected post-war British suburban design, with brick facades, small front gardens, and narrow alleyways. Over the decades, Cromwell Street transitioned from a typical suburban street to one with a complex socio-economic profile, experiencing periods of decline and renewal. By the late 20th century, however, the street was predominantly inhabited by long-standing residents, many of whom had been living there for over 30 years.

Community and Demographics

The community on Cromwell Street was, for the most part, typical of working-class Britain during the period. Residents included: - Factory workers - Small business owners - Pensioners and retirees - Families seeking affordable housing.
